Perfect Tenses in the Active Voice

What is Perfect Verb Tense?

Perfect verb tense is used to show an action that is complete and finished, or perfected. It covers the past perfect tense, the present perfect tense, and the future perfect tense.

Present Perfect Tense

What is Present Perfect Tense?

The present perfect tense is employed in a sentence to represent an action that just happened in the recent past and still has its effect in the present or an action that represents an indefinite time in the past.

Subject + have/has + verb (v3) + object

He has completed the mission.

Subject + have/has + not + verb (v3) + object

He has not completed the mission.

have/has + subject + verb (v3) + object + ?

Has he completed the mission?

Past Perfect Tense

What is Past Perfect Tense?

The past perfect tense is slightly different in its structure and use in a sentence from the simple past tense and the past continuous tense. The past perfect tense clearly states that one action took place before another action in the past. It can also be said that the past perfect tense represents a past action that took place in the past.

+	S + had + past participle + ... She had finished the test.
-	S + had not/hadn't + past participle + ... She hadn't finished the test.
?	Had + S + past participle + ...? Had she finished the test?

Future Perfect Tense

What is Future Perfect Tense?

The future perfect tense is a tense form that can be used to represent an action or event that will be over within a particular time in the future. The action referred to in the future perfect tense has an end date or time.
