Simple Tenses in the Passive Voice

What is Simple Tenses in the Passive Voice?

Passive voice can be used with many tenses, such as simple tenses like present simple tense, past simple tense and future simple tense.

To change the tense of a passive sentence, all you need to do is change the form of the verb “be”. The main verb in a passive sentence is always in the past participle form.

In a passive sentence, we need to decide what to do with the subject. In the passive voice, it is not necessary to mention who or what performed the action. However, we can include the subject of the active sentence in the passive sentence using the preposition “by”.

Simple Present Tense	Sub + V¹ + Obj	Obj + am/is/are + V ³ + by + Obj.Pronoun
Simple Past Tense	Sub + V² + Obj	Obj + was/were + V ³ + by + Obj.Pronoun
Simple Future Tense	Sub + shall/will + V ¹ + Obj	Obj + shall/will + be + V ³ + by + Obj.Pronoun

Continuous Tenses in the Passive Voice

To change the tense of a passive sentence in the continuous tense, you need to conjugate the verb “be” in the continuous tense. The main verb in a passive sentence is always in the past participle form.

Present Continuous Tense	Sub + am/is/are + V ¹ + ing + Obj	Obj + am/is/are + being + V ³ + by + Obj.Pronoun
Past Continuous Tense	Sub + was/were + V ¹ + ing + Obj	Obj + was/were + being + V ³ + by + Obj.Pronoun
